NEW MARLINS BALLPARK

Opening in the spring of 2012, the New Marlins Ballpark will replace the legacy of the memorable Orange Bowl in Little Havana, just west of downtown Miami. Situated on the same footprint, the ballpark will be the anchor for major redevelopment in the area. This new state-of-the-art facility will include a retractable roof to shield fans from the sun and rain, inherently changing the perception of summertime baseball in South Florida for future generations. The bold vision of Miami-Dade County, the City of Miami and the Marlins is portrayed through the architecture as a modern, kinetic sculpture of faceted metal and glass. The future home of the Marlins will be a first-class ballpark that will be owned by Miami-Dade County. It is being constructed on approximately 17 acres of the historic 42-acre Orange Bowl site in the Little Havana section of Miami. The ballpark will have a retractable roof, a natural grass playing field and be able to accommodate 37,000 spectators, including 50 private suites that are isolated from the rest of the concourse. The New Marlins Ballpark will feature an intimate setting where seats will be close to the playing field, for an enhanced fan experience, and a comfortable 75 degree temperature in the ballpark rain or shine, day or night.

New Marlins Ballpark will be the next biggest entertainment venue in South Florida. The new state-of-the-art Ballpark will feature an operable wall in left field showcasing spectacular views of downtown Miami, a retractable roof to keep fans comfortable during games and other events, two aquariums located on each side of home plate that contain 450 gallons of water each , and incredible food options and dining.

NEW MARLINS BALLPARK 2012

CREATING AN URBAN CENTER

The urban plan proposes a fundamental change in the character of the old Orange Bowl precinct, recreating the neighborhood street network and reconnecting Little Havana to Northwest 7th Street and Northwest 17th Avenue. Within this framework of public streets, the ballpark, future development and parking garages are presented as urban buildings on city blocks, creating an urban center. This plan proposes a civic setting for a public building. Conceived as an urban gallery, the ballpark is located between major public plazas on the east and west boundaries of the site. Parking structures form the other two walls of the gallery, moderating the scale between the ballpark and adjoining neighborhoods. The western plaza is unlike any other place in Miami, changing as the roof is rolled over the park below. The ballpark will provide retail at its base to integrate with the proposed, adjacent retail development, intentionally creating a street edge that connects to the surrounding neighborhood. Fans will enjoy comfortable dining, shopping as well of special events, concerts and more. The western plaza will be the size of three and a half football fields and will be open to the public 365 days a year.

THE BALLPARK AS AN ARCHITECTURAL SCULPTURE

The building is conceived as an abstraction of "water merging with land" symbolic of Miami's coastal landscape. The base of the ballpark will create a backdrop for urban life with arcades and colorful mosaics reflecting the diverse culture of Miami. The arcades are capped by large sweeping balconies, allowing a continual pedestrian/fan experience to the street life surrounding the ballpark. The east and west facades provide transparency to action both inside and outside of the ballpark, visually connecting and reducing the mass. The roof will become the kinetic element of the sculpture, moving as three separate panels to provide shade and weather protection for all fans. The roof movements will be reflected in the use of color as a dynamic addition to the architecture. The seating bowl is comprised of three decks with less than 10,000 seats in the upper deck, resulting in one of the most intimate experiences in all of baseball. Interior features will include atrium spaces filled with color and art, a half-acre operable window to downtown Miami and beautiful colors bathing the concourses. This ballpark will be a civic sculpture with strong connection to one place, one neighborhood, one city and one state. What will be created is the most incredible baseball experience, where beauty and baseball collide.

LOCATION

The site is less than two miles from downtown Miami, only three-quarters of a mile from the westbound SR 836 exit at 12th Avenue, and 0.4 miles from the eastbound exit at 17th Avenue. Via Interstate 95, the site is 1.25 miles from the NW 8th Street exit.

The ballpark site is about two blocks away.

From the West:

After passing the tollbooth, take the first exit onto NW 17th Avenue.
Drive south and turn left on NW 7th Street.

From the South:

Continue until NW 3rd Street and turn right.
The ballpark site will be located about two blocks away on NW 15th Avenue.

SIT CLOSER THAN EVER

Rarely have the words ballpark and intimacy blended so well together. Seats in the New Marlins Ballpark are among the closest to the playing field in all of baseball. Every seat has been placed with only one thing in mind - to provide you with the ultimate fan experience. You will always be comfortable, cool and close to all the action and excitement.

Mike Stanton, along with John Buck, Chris Coghlan, Logan Morrison, Hanley Ramirez and Gaby Sanchez, took batting practice in their future home on February 15, 2011.

CONCOURSE OF ACTION

The ballpark will feature an open 360-degree Promenade Level, giving fans a live view of the playing field no matter where they are. The Taste of Miami concession stands will provide diverse and tasty culinary delights, and will be located in left field next to the signature bar looking out at Miami's skyline. The New Marlins Ballpark will also contain accessible seating locations and aisle-transfer seats offering a full complement of prices, locations and amenities.

'GREEN' BALLPARK

The New Marlins Ballpark will be a LEED Certified Ballpark. The ballpark's environmentally friendly design will incorporate conservation, sustainability and energy efficiency.

The Marlins are not waiting until the Ballpark is built to be environmentally friendly; the New Marlins Ballpark construction team has initiated an aggressive waste management recycling program. Currently, more than 95 % of the construction waste is being recycled. Primary items being recycled are: asphalt, cardboard, concrete, metal, steel, paper, plastic and wood, among others. The design of the ballpark has focused on including green initiatives, with a goal to incorporate pre-consumer and post-consumer recycled content that will ultimately represent more than 20% of the total material incorporated into the ballpark. The team has also specified materials harvested and manufactured within 500 miles of the job site to reduce transportation emissions and support the local economy. As the ballpark progresses, other green project elements will include the use of low VOC (Volatile Organic Compounds) paints, adhesives, carpets and flooring to improve the indoor air quality in the ballpark. Additionally, each site office complex conducts independent recycling with the goal to donate any money from this program to a local entity for them to start their own green efforts.

ALL HEART AWARD

The Marlins presented the 2010 All Heart Award to John Baker. The All Heart Award is presented to the Marlins player who best exemplifies the team's commitment to the South Florida community by making a positive impact on our youth and serving as a role model for others.

John Baker on his visit to the Cap-Haitian region of Haiti

Baker is always willing to meet with fans and do what he can to brighten their day. He is an excellent role model for youngsters and is a perfect example of what it means to truly give from the heart. Baker gives his time to support the Florida Marlins Community Foundation (FMCF) with their fundraising efforts, as well as fulfilling the mission of the Club and Foundation. Since John joined the Club in 2008, he has played in the annual Marlins Celebrity Classic Golf Tournament and attended the Club's annual awards dinner. Baker is also involved with many Cornerstones for Kids programs; he participates in Marlins@School Week and the Marlins Youth Baseball Clinic Series, offering instruction to youth on the fundamentals of baseball. He also visits local children's hospitals, doing what he can to brighten a young patients' day.

In 2010, Baker's focus away from the field revolved around showing support to our troops here at home and overseas, as well as lending a hand to those recovering from the devastating earthquake in Haiti.

Baker was part of a Marlins contingent that traveled to Kuwait and Iraq on the first ever MLB trip to visit the troops in the war region of Iraq. During the eight-day trip, they spent time with kids at the Kuwait Little League, signed countless autographs and simply spent time swapping stories with the young men and women of our military. Upon returning to the States, Baker and Chris Coghlan (who was also on the trip) formed the Marlins Letters to Troops program, which encourages Marlins fans to take time to send letters to members of the Florida National Guard currently serving overseas. The duo also became involved with the Stand Down House, an organization in Palm Beach County that assists homeless male veterans who are struggling with acclimating to civilian life after the military. Baker provided tickets for veterans to come to games and he spent time with them during their time at the ballpark.

John always takes time to visit with soldiers of the Wounded Warriors program and often spends time with our Soldiers of the Month during pregame festivities. He also partnered with Coghlan to host a Pros vs. GI Joes event at the Stadium. Via Xbox Live, Marlins 'Pros' at Sun Life Stadium and 'GI Joes' stationed around the world battled each other in Call of Duty and Guitar Hero.

In July 2010, Baker embarked on a journey of another kind. He was part of a Marlins contingent that traveled to Haiti to see firsthand the destitute living conditions of families in Port-au-Prince, as well as in Cap-Haitien, where some of those fleeing the earthquake ravaged capital had moved. John served as a spokesperson for the Marlins Homes for Haiti campaign, which in partnership with Food For The Poor, helped raise funds to build a 25 home village in Haiti. He recorded TV and radio PSAs, conducted media interviews, shared his experience and drummed up support for contributions. In March 2011, Baker will be part of the Marlins contingent that will travel to Haiti for the dedication of Inspiration Village.

CORNERSTONES FOR KIDS

The foundation of every child's future is a strong mind and a strong body. Through education, the arts and baseball, Cornerstones for Kids provides the tools for Florida's youth to develop both their minds and bodies in a positive manner.

EDUCATION

Marlins@School

Marlins@School is an on-line curriculum enhancement program that utilizes the Marlins as the basis for the lessons. Marlins@School aims to enhance the learning experiences of children in grades four through six by linking baseball to the curriculum areas of language arts, mathematics, science, health/fitness and geography. The program is free to educators and the lessons are in line with FCAT standards and requirements. Marlins players, coaches and broadcasters will visit approximately 20 participating classrooms during Marlins@School Week in May.

Teacher Appreciation Night

The Marlins recognize the Teacher of the Year from Broward, Miami-Dade, Monroe and Palm Beach counties during a pregame ceremony. Complimentary tickets are given to every school's Teacher of the Year nominee.

THE ARTS

The Marlins recognize that an important part of developing a strong mind is stimulating creativity and imagination. Therefore, the Marlins pursue partnerships with art programs and museums that strive to enhance the lives and learning of children and adults alike.

The Marlins Masterpieces Art Series

The Marlins Masterpieces Art Series artistically engages the youth of South Florida throughout the calendar year. Young artists are invited to participate in the three contests: the Spring Series, the Summer Series, and the Holiday Series. The Spring Series challenges elementary, middle and high school kids to create "Marlinized" pieces of work within the theme of Speed, Power and Teamwork. The Summer Series encourages summer campers to put their creativity to the test by artistically altering a three-dimensional object into a Marlins Masterpiece. The Holiday Series invites elementary, middle and high school students to create the cover of the Florida Marlins Community Foundation's holiday card.

BASEBALL

Marlins Youth Baseball Clinic Series

The Marlins Youth Baseball Clinic Series allows Marlins coaches and players the opportunity to pass along their baseball knowledge. In order to give children the experience of learning baseball from professionals, the Marlins conduct clinics on select Saturday mornings throughout the year. Marlins players and coaches reinforce the fundamentals of pitching, hitting and fielding.

RBI

Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) is a youth outreach program designed to promote interest in baseball and softball, increase the self-esteem of disadvantaged children and encourage them to stay in school and off the streets. The Marlins supply uniforms, umpires and equipment for the league's participants, as well as tickets to attend a Marlins game on RBI Night.

Jr. RBI

The Marlins have partnered with the City of Miami Parks and Recreation Department and the Miami-Dade County Parks and Recreation to offer the Jr. RBI league. Through the league, children have the opportunity to begin playing in the T-ball division and advance through the Coach Pitch division and into the Kid Pitch division. The league has been funded through the Florida Marlins Community Foundation. The program allows kids the opportunity to begin playing baseball at a younger age so that they may eventually graduate into the RBI program once they turn 13 years of age.

Baseball Tomorrow Fund Equipment Drive

Marlins fans are encouraged to donate new or gently-used equipment to the Baseball Tomorrow Fund Equipment Drive. The collected equipment is distributed to disadvantaged ball players throughout South Florida.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Ballpark Buddies/Corporate Partners for Youth

Through the Ballpark Buddies program, tickets are distributed to local charities and underprivileged youth groups throughout the season. The tickets are provided by the Marlins Corporate Sponsors as well as the Commissioners Community Initiative.

Community Clubhouse

The Marlins understand the tremendous impact local community-based organizations have on South Florida. During games, local organizations are invited to utilize the community clubhouse, located at Section 149, to showcase their cause. They have the opportunity to distribute materials and heighten awareness for their organization.

Group Fund Raising Efforts

The Marlins offer special group rates for events such as Salute to Youth Baseball Days, Scout Nights, Religious Organization Nights and Baseball Buddies. For more information, contact Marlins Group Sales at 1-877-MARLINS.

Marlins AYUDAN

The Marlins front office volunteer program provides an avenue for our staff to get involved and give back to our community. Through monthly community service activities and organization-wide community service days, thousands of volunteer hours are dedicated to help make South Florida a better place to live.

Marlins front office staff participating in their community involved Ayudan program.

Player Appearances

Marlins players make various community visits throughout the year. Visits to schools, hospitals, youth centers and local businesses give the players the opportunity to interact with fans outside the stadium.

Speakers Bureau

The mission of the Speakers Bureau is to educate fans and convey a positive message about the Marlins and the sport of baseball. The Speakers Bureau encourages front office members to actively communicate the club's vision for the future, while listening carefully to the community for feedback.

Youth Baseball and Softball Partnership Program

JEFFREY H. LORIA

MARLINS OWNER

- Jeffrey H. Loria begins his 10th season as Owner of the Florida Marlins in 2011. Under his leadership, the Marlins have won one World Series Championship and posted winning seasons five times, including three straight from 2003-05 and two winning campaigns over the last three seasons. Prior to his tenure as Marlins Owner, the Club had produced just one winning season (1997) in nine National League campaigns.

- Loria officially became the third owner in Club history after purchasing the Marlins from John Henry on February 15, 2002, and he took over the team following the sale's unanimous approval by Major League Owners. Florida's winning percentage under Loria is .505, after the franchise posted a .451 winning percentage from 1993-2001.

- Following the 2007 season, Loria demonstrated his commitment to winning by signing Larry Beinfest (President, Baseball Operations), Michael Hill (VP, General Manager), Dan Jennings (Asst. GM, VP of Player Personnel) and Jim Fleming (Asst. GM, VP of Player Development and Scouting) to long-term extensions through the 2015 season.

- Loria led the Marlins to a World Series title in his second season, 2003, becoming the fastest majority owner to join a franchise and guide it to a championship since Detroit Tigers Owner Thomas S. Monaghan won in his first season in 1984.

- After a 16-22 start to that championship campaign, he made a managerial change on May 11, naming Jack McKeon the seventh manager in Marlins history. That, along with the acquisitions of American League saves leader Ugueth Urbina (Texas Rangers) and South Florida baseball favorite Jeff Conine (Baltimore Orioles) sparked the Marlins en route to a National League Wild Card and eventual World Series Championship.

- Florida won the 2003 World Series in six games over the New York Yankees, capped off by a 2-0 shutout at Yankee Stadium on October 25. The Marlins won 91 games that season, one shy of the Club record established during the 1997 Championship campaign. No team won more games than Florida from May 23 through the end of the season.

- Loria first became involved in professional baseball in 1989 when he purchased the Triple-A American Association Oklahoma City 89ers, now the Pacific Coast League's RedHawks, which he owned until 1993. He was named the American Association's Executive of the Year in 1992, the same season his Club won the Triple-A Championship.

- Born in New York City, he received his undergraduate degree from Yale University in 1962, before earning his MBA from Columbia University.

- A leading international Art Dealer since 1962, Loria specializes in major paintings and sculptures by 20th Century Masters. He is a former member of the Board of Directors of the Art Dealers Association of America and is an emeritus member of the Board of Directors for the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law of Yeshiva University in New York City. He is also active in numerous charitable organizations. He is the author of two books, "Collecting Original Art" and "What's It All About Charlie Brown?"

- Loria spends much time supporting many charities around the world, including hospitals, educational institutions and museums.

- Loria divides his time between his homes in New York and South Florida.

5

CARL BARGER

The Florida Marlins dedicated the Club's inaugural season to Carl Barger, who passed away December 9, 1992 at the Baseball Winter Meetings. Mr. Barger was the Marlins first President and Chief Operating Officer. The Marlins honored their first president by retiring number 5 (his favorite player was Joe DiMaggio) on April 5, 1993 and adding his name at the bottom of a specially designed inaugural season patch.

DAVID P. SAMSON

MARLINS PRESIDENT

- David Samson enters his 12th season in Major League Baseball and 10th as President of the Florida Marlins. He is one of only eight current Presidents in Major League Baseball who has presided over a World Series champion.
- As Club President, Samson oversees all aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations, including sales, marketing, operations and personnel matters. He also overlooks the construction of the New Marlins Ballpark in Miami. Construction on the baseball-only, retractable roof, air-conditioned facility has exceeded all stated goals to date from, local worker participation to local firm involvement. The ballpark project is on budget and on schedule to open for the 2012 season.
- Samson works closely with Owner and CEO, Jeffrey Loria, on all baseball matters and general corporate strategy. Samson is also the President of the Florida Marlins Community Foundation, which focuses its efforts on baseball, arts and educational needs of the South Florida community. The Foundation distributed well over $1 million to worthy charities in South Florida in 2010 and is on pace to surpass that amount in 2011.
- Among his accomplishments, Samson was named one of Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" for two years running, 2003-04. Other highlights, in addition to the 2003 World Series Championship, included the Florida Marlins being named South Florida's No. 1 Film and Entertainment Company of the Year and Baseball America's Organization of the Year.
- Samson, 43, was born in Milwaukee, WI, and was raised in New York City. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a bachelor's in Economics in 1990. He received a Juris Doctor from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York City in 1993. He is a member of the New York State Bar. Following law school, Samson became President and Founder of News Travels Fast, the first company to deliver the New York Times to Europe on a same-day basis. In 1996, Samson joined Morgan Stanley, an investment bank in New York City, a position he resigned in 1999 when he joined the Montreal Expos as Executive Vice President.
- On October 21, 2006, Samson became the first active team President to complete the Ford Ironman World Championship Triathlon in Kona, Hawaii. In addition to swimming 2.4 miles, biking 112 miles, and then running a full marathon, all in 15 hours, 36 minutes, Samson personally raised over $250,000 for the Florida Marlins Community Foundation, the Challenged Athletes Foundation ("CAF") and other local Hawaiian charities.
- Samson concentrates his charitable efforts on helping underprivileged and sick children experience summer camp and improved education and health care. In addition, he is a member of CAF's Board of Directors. His vision is to help increase its visibility, thus enabling more physically challenged athletes to compete in triathlons as well as other sports. In 2009, Samson was appointed to serve on the Board of Governors of the Miami Foundation. The foundation's primary purpose is to encourage philanthropy and charitable giving by developing a permanent endowment to meet merging charitable needs. In 2010, Samson was named to Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law's Board of Overseers. As a member of this board he will work closely with Dean Matthew Diller to continue Cardozo's renowned clinical programs, as well as the continued growth of its public interest scholarship programs. Samson also manifests his love of movies through the popular weekly segment on the Dan Lebatard show on the team's flagship radio station. This show gives him an opportunity to review and discuss movies and other points of cultural and social interest. Samson annually delivers over 100 speeches in and around South Florida and the United States on subjects varying from the business of baseball to general motivation.
- He and his wife, Cindi, a former school director, have been married for 20 years and have two daughters, Hannah and Kyra, and a son, Caleb.

JOEL A. MAEL

MARLINS VICE-CHAIRMAN

- The 2011 season will mark Joel A. Mael's 10th as Vice-Chairman of the Florida Marlins, a position he was named to in February of 2002. Prior to joining the Marlins, for three years, Mael worked closely with the Montreal Expos organization as a financial advisor. His business relationship with Owner Jeffrey Loria dates back over 20 years, and he continues to advise ownership and management on a myriad issues.
- Mael co-founded the investment and merchant banking firm Tallwood Associates in 1990. The New York City firm has completed over 100 transactions/investments since its inception. Mael sits on the boards of many of the firms' numerous clients.
- Following his graduation from business school in 1981, Mael spent 10 years in Drexel Burnham's Corporate Finance department, rose to the Managing Director level and was a member of the department's executive committee. At Drexel, he was involved in over $5 billion of financings and numerous M&A and LBO transactions.
- Mael was born in Montreal, Canada, and raised in Brookline, MA. He earned a B.A. in Economics from Yeshiva College and an MBA from Harvard Business School in 1981.
- Mael was elected as a Trustee of the Village of Lawrence, NY, in 2003, and is currently serving his 4th two-year term. He was named Deputy Mayor in 2010. He also serves on the board of directors of Yeshiva College and other various charitable institutions. Mael, 53, and his wife, Lynn, have four children: Ayelet, Jonathan, Daniella and Aviva.

LARRY BEINFEST

MARLINS PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

- Larry Beinfest enters his 22nd season in professional baseball in 2011, his 10th year atop the Marlins Baseball Operations Department. He was promoted to President of Baseball Operations and signed an extension through the 2015 season on September 29, 2007. He previously served as Executive Vice President and General Manager. In his nine seasons, the Marlins have compiled a 736-721 record (.505) and a World Series title. During Beinfest's tenure, the Marlins have posted seven of their top nine single-season win totals (91 in 2003, 2nd; 87 in 2009, 2nd; 84 in 2008, 3rd; 83 in 2004 and 2005, tied for 4th; 80 in 2010, tied for 7th and 79 in 2002, tied for 9th). In the Club's first nine seasons, the Marlins had one winning season and made one playoff appearance, as they won the World Series in 1997.

- During the 2010 season several of the Marlins homegrown talents made significant contributions. Gaby Sanchez and Logan Morrison emerged from the Marlins 2005 draft class and Mike Stanton from the 2007 class, joining Josh Johnson (2002), Chris Volstad (2005) and Chris Coghlan (2006) as Marlins drafted under Beinfest to have an impact at the Major League level.

- Over the past five seasons, Beinfest has re-tooled the Marlins roster, acquiring talents such as Hanley Ramirez, Anibal Sanchez, Ricky Nolasco, Leo Nunez and Clay Hensley via trades, the Rule 5 Draft and free agency. Ramirez went on to become the 2006 NL Rookie of the Year, the second NL Rookie of the Year acquired via trade during Beinfest's tenure with the Club (also Dontrelle Willis), and in 2009 Chris Coghlan became the third Marlins Rookie of the Year winner in seven seasons.

- In 2003, the Marlins won the World Series Championship and were recognized as the Organization of the Year by Baseball America. The 2003 Marlins produced a 91-71 record, the third-best mark in the National League, behind Atlanta and San Francisco. The minor league system combined for a 343-340 mark and three postseason playoff berths, a feat accomplished for just the second time in the organization's first 11 seasons. Beinfest was named the Rube Foster Legacy Award winner by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as the 2003 National League Executive of the Year.

- Beinfest built the Marlins into a 2003 playoff contender and eventual World Series champion through a number of trades and free agent acquisitions. Prior to the start of the 2002 season, the Marlins acquired Dontrelle Willis and during the year added Carl Pavano and Juan Encarnacion. In the offseason, Beinfest added 14-game winner Mark Redman, 2003 team Most Valuable Player Juan Pierre and future Hall of Famer Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez.

- During the 2003 campaign, Beinfest acquired then-American League saves leader Ugueth Urbina from the Texas Rangers, signed all-time pinch-hit leader Lenny Harris and pitchers Chad Fox and Rick Helling to help strengthen the team during its playoff run. When All-Star third baseman Mike Lowell broke his left hand on August 30, he acquired Jeff Conine from the Baltimore Orioles prior to the midnight deadline on August 31.

- Beinfest is one of just three active Baseball Operations heads to win a World Series within his first two seasons. Yankees General Manager Brian Cashman won the trophy in his first season (1998), while Beinfest and Red Sox General Manager Theo Epstein both accomplished the task during their second seasons. Beinfest is one of seven active Baseball Ops heads to win a World Series, joining Cashman, Epstein, Ken Williams, David Dombrowski, Walt Jocketty and Brian Sabean.

- Beinfest was named the second General Manager in Club history (following Dave Dombrowski) on February 12, 2002. Prior to joining the Marlins, he served as the Montreal Expos Interim General Manager, named to that position on October 2, 2001.

- Beinfest was named the Expos Assistant General Manager on December 3, 1999. He was involved in all aspects of baseball operations, including contract negotiations, salary arbitration and rules and waiver compliance. Beinfest began his career in professional baseball in 1989 with the Seattle Mariners and during his 10 years with the Mariners he held several positions including Player Development and Scouting Assistant, Assistant Director of Player Development, Director of Player Development, and Assistant to the Vice President, Baseball Operations.

- Born and raised in Chatsworth, CA, Beinfest was an All-Los Angeles selection as a shortstop at Chatsworth High. He graduated in 1986 from the University of California, Berkeley, and has a master's degree in Public Communications from Syracuse University. Beinfest and his wife, Katie, have two children, Madelyn and Mitchell.

Dawson hit a three-run home run in his next-to-last game played at Pro Player Stadium on September 22, 1996, vs. Houston. His 438 career home runs are the third-most by a Florida native, behind Fred McGriff (493) and Gary Sheffield (499).

- Dawson won the 1987 National League Most Valuable Player Award in his first season with the Chicago Cubs when he set career highs with 49 home runs and 137 RBI. - Under Hill's guidance in 2009, the Pittsburgh Pirates led all major league teams in fielding percentage (.988) and made the fewest errors (73) among all teams, setting club records for most errorless games played in one season (101) and also with their fielding percentage. The Bucs lost 99 games in 2009 and made a Major-League low 73 errors, the most losses ever by a team that led the majors in fewest errors in a season. The Pirates also led the National League in double plays turned (171) for the third straight season.
- In 2006, Hill instructed Rawlings Gold Glove winners at all four infield positions during his career: 1B Derrek Lee (2003), 2B Luis Castillo (2003-05), 3B Mike Lowell (2005) and SS Orlando Cabrera (2001).
- Instructed infield that included All-Stars Miguel Cabrera and Dan Uggla, as well as N.L. Rookie of the Year Hanley Ramirez.
- Led Marlins to third-best fielding percentage (.983, tied) in Club history in 2005. He guided third baseman Mike Lowell and second baseman Luis Castillo to winning Rawlings Gold Gloves, the seveth and eighth Gold Gloves in Team history.
- Led Club to .986 fielding percentage in 2004, the second-best mark in Team history. He assisted second baseman Luis Castillo in collecting his second-straight Rawlings Gold Glove. In addition, third baseman Mike Lowell committed just seven errors in 154 games, a Major League record for third basemen. Because of his efforts, he was named a 2004 All-Star Game coach.
- Guided the Marlins to a franchise-best .987 fielding percentage in 2003, ranking third in the Majors, behind Seattle (.989) and St. Louis (.987). Saw Florida's starting infield post a .987 fielding percentage (40 errors in 3,124 total chances).
- Guided first baseman Derrek Lee and second baseman Luis Castillo, who collected Rawlings Gold Gloves in 2003, Florida's fourth and fifth Gold Gloves in franchise history and the first not won by catcher Charles Johnson.
- Experienced his first ML postseason action in 2003, following three as a minor league coach and two as a minor league instructor, and guided the Marlins to a World Series Championship.
- Guided Florida's infield to a .981 fielding percentage in 2002 (.9812, 65 E, 3,462 TC), including a .982 mark by the starters. Lowered the Marlins' overall infield errors total by two, from 67 in 2001; Florida's infield had a .980 fielding mark in that season.
- Joined the Marlins on February 12, 2002, following two years (2000-01) as the Expos first base and infield coach... Florida marks his fourth Major League coaching stop, following Texas, Detroit and Montreal.
- Helped to lower the Expos infield errors total for the second straight season as they committed only 65 infield miscues in 2001 (3,422 TC, a .981 fielding percentage), down from 72 errors in 2000 and 88 in 1999.
- Guided the development of shortstop Orlando Cabrera, who collected his first Rawlings Gold Glove in 2001.
- Prior to joining the Expos, served three seasons (1997-99) as the Detroit Tigers third base and infield coach. Under his tutelage in 1998, three of the four Tigers' infielders finished among the top four in the AL at their positions in fielding percentage. Led the 1997 Tigers' to the AL's top fielding mark as they became the first team ever to go from worst to first in fielding in consecutive seasons.

Served most of the 1995 and 1996 seasons as a roving infield instructor and Coordinator of Minor League Instruction for the Rangers. Spent the second half of the 1995 season as the Rangers' first base coach, filling in for Ed Napoleon. Joined the Rangers Major League staff for part of the 1992 season and all of 1993 and '94 as the Club's first base and infield coach. Named to the position on July 16, 1992 when Toby Harrah was named manager.

WHY THE MARLINS?

The Marlin, a gamefish native to the region, was selected as the Club's nickname because it is known for its fierce fighting and cleverness. But the selection also has historical basis. From 1956-70 and 1982-88, various minor league clubs in Miami carried the Marlins name.

2010 NOTES

- In his ninth professional season, posted an 11-6 record and a National League-best 2.30 ERA in 28 starts for Florida. He led the club in strikeouts (186) and ranked second in innings pitched, third in starts and fourth in wins. He missed the final three weeks of the season with a strained muscle in his back, but did not see any time on the disabled list.
- Led the NL in home ERA (1.57) and held opponents to the 10th-lowest average against (.229). His ERA at home was the lowest ever recorded by a Marlin, knocking Kevin Brown's 1.69 ERA in 1996 from the top spot.
- Made his first career Opening Day start on April 5 at New York (NL), becoming the 11th different starting pitcher to make an Opening Day start for the Marlins, and the seventh since 2000. He took the loss against the Mets, surrendering four runs on five hits with four walks and three strikeouts over 5.0 innings.
- Named to his second consecutive NL All-Star team after posting the lowest first-half ERA in Club history (1.70). Kevin Brown previously held the mark with a 1.89 ERA (119.0 IP/25 ER) in 1996. His 23 first-half earned runs allowed were the fewest among Marlins' starters with 15 or more first-half starts in Club history.
- Went 2.0 innings in the Mid-Summer Classic, allowing no hits while striking out two. Marked his first appearance in an All-Star game, as he did not pitch in 2009.
- Paired with Ricky Nolasco to become the only two pitchers in Club history to record at least nine wins prior to the break. Their nine first half wins were tied for the fifth-most in Franchise history. Dontrelle Willis had 13 in 2005 while Nolasco (2008), Ryan Dempster (2001) and Chris Hammond (1993) each had 10.
- Over his first seven starts, posted a 3-1 record with a 3.35 ERA (43.0 IP/16 ER), allowing three or more runs in four of those starts.
- In 13 starts after May 8, went 7-2 with a 0.79 ERA (91.1 IP/8 ER), failing to allow more than two runs in any start during that span; allowed two runs on June 26 vs. San Diego. Held opponents to zero or one run 12 times during the stretch. He was the first pitcher since Greg Maddux in 1995 to go 13 consecutive starts without allowing more than two runs.
- Earned National League Pitcher of the Month honors in June after going 3-1 with a 1.18 ERA (38.0 IP/5 ER) in five starts. He issued just six walks compared to 38 strikeouts.
- Held opponents to a .203 average against in the first half, the lowest among Marlins starters in Franchise history. The previous mark was .205 held by Al Leiter in 1996.
- Struck out 123 batters prior to the break, which marked the second-most in Club history, following A.J. Burnett in 2002 (129).
- On April 26 vs. San Diego, struck out 12 batters in a complete game win while going 3x4 with three RBI as a batter. Only three other pitchers had at least three hits and three-or-more RBIs at the plate while striking out at least 12 opposing batters in the same game; Dazzy Vance did it for the 1925 Brooklyn Dodgers, as did J.R. Richard for the 1976 Astros and Steve Carlton for the 1977 Phillies. - Elias Sports Bureau
- Owned a 1.62 ERA over his first 19 starts of the season, becoming only the sixth pitcher in the division era (since 1969) to have an ERA that low in their first 19 starts of a season; Vida Blue in 1971 (1.37), Gaylord Perry in 1974 (1.45), Greg Maddux in 1998 (1.54), Pedro Martinez in 2000 (1.42) and Roger Clemens in 2005 (1.47). – Elias Sports Bureau
- From July 27 to the end of the season, he went 1-3 with a 4.20 ERA (49.1 IP/23 ER) in eight starts before being shut down due to injury.
- Made two starts against Roy Halladay in 2010; May 29 at Sun Life Stadium and June 10 at Citizens Bank Park. In three career starts against Halladay, has gone 2–1 with a 0.44 ERA (20.1 IP/1 ER). According to Elias, his ERA is the lowest versus Halladay among pitchers who have started against him at least three times.
- On the season, came away with seven no decisions after handing the bullpen the lead, with the seven ND's leading the Majors. Jered Weaver, Kyle Kendrick, Johnny Cueto, Tommy Hanson and John Lackey all had six. - Elias
- After allowing one run in 8.0 innings on June 20 vs. Tampa Bay, he became the third pitcher over the last 100 seasons to have eight straight starts of at least 6.0 IP and allow no more than one run. The other two were Bob Gibson in 1968 (11 in a row) and J.R. Richard in 1979 (8).

- At the time of his promotion to Florida, led the Southern League in home runs, RBI, on-base percentage (.442), slugging percentage (.729), extra base hits (36), total bases (140) and intentional walks (10). Ranked eighth in the SL in average.
- Also led all MiLB in home runs and intentional walks, ranked second in slugging percentage and fourth in RBI prior to being called up.
- Earned Southern League Player of the Week honors for the week of April 26-May 2.
- Named Marlins' Minor League Player of the Month for April after hitting .342 with 10 home runs and 23 RBI in 21 games.
- Had contract selected by Florida on June 8 at Philadelphia. With the Marlins, hit .259 with 21 doubles, one triple, 22 home runs and 59 RBI in 100 games.
- Hit 17 home runs in the second half of the season, tying him for the most post All-Star home runs in Franchise history. Gary Sheffield (1996) is the only other Marlin to hit 17 second-half home runs.
- Made his Major League debut on June 8, earning the start in right field while going 3x5 with two runs scored. At 20 years and 212 days, he became the second-youngest player to make their debut with the Marlins. Miguel Cabrera is the only player in Franchise history to make his debut at a younger age (20 years, 63 days).
- In addition, he became the youngest player to get three-or-more hits in his MLB debut since Danny Ainge did it for the Blue Jays on May 21, 1979. Ainge was 20 years, 65 days old when he went 3x4 in his big league debut against the Indians at Exhibition Stadium. – Elias
- Hit first career home run on June 18, a grand slam off Matt Garza. Was the sixth Marlin in club history whose first home run was a grand slam. Over the last 25 years only three other players hit a grand slam before their 21st birthday: Jose Reyes (2003 Mets), Andruw Jones (1997 Braves) and Alex Rodriguez (3 for the 1996 Mariners). – Elias
- Homered in consecutive games on July 6 and 7 against the Dodgers, becoming the first player not yet 21 years old to homer in consecutive games at Dodger Stadium. Two players did that at 21 years old: Matt Kemp (2006) and Larry Parrish (1975). – Elias
- On August 11 at Washington, went 5x5 with two doubles, a home run and four RBI. His five hits were the most by a Marlin in 2010, tying a club record (14th time) that was last done by Hanley Ramirez on July 10, 2008 at Los Angeles (NL). According to Elias, became the second youngest player (20 years, 276 days) to register five hits and drive in four runs in the same game since RBI became an official statistic in 1920. The Cubs' Phil Cavarretta had five hits and four RBI at the age of 19 years and 33 days old on August 21, 1935. Stanton is only the second player in Marlins' franchise history with five hits and four RBI in the same game. The other was Gary Sheffield on September 17, 1995 at Colorado (five hits; four RBI). – Elias Sports Bureau
- Marked the first of two multi-home run games on August 13 at Cincinnati. Was the first player not yet 21 years old to hit two-or-more home runs in a game since Miguel Cabrera on April 13, 2004 at Montreal. - Elias
- His second two-HR game was on September 12 at Washington. The two home runs pushed his season total to 20, and he became the fourth player since 2000 to reach the mark within his first 81 games played, joining Albert Pujols, Ryan Braun and Adam Dunn. In addition, no player had hit as many homers as Stanton in a season in which he made his big-league debut in June or later since Kevin Maas slammed 21 home runs for the Yankees in 1990 after playing his first game in the majors on June 29 of that year. – Elias
- Named the National League Player of the Week from August 9-15 after leading the Majors in batting. He posted a .583 average (14x24), and also led the Bigs in doubles (5), hits, slugging percentage (1.292), on-base percentage (.630) and total bases (31). He was tied for ML lead in home runs with four.
- On September 30, he and Pedro Alvarez each had five RBI in the Marlins' 11-9 win against the Pirates. It was only the third game since 1920 -- when the major leagues first officially recorded runs batted in -- in which each team had a rookie who recorded at least five RBI. It happened in a 1997 game between the White Sox (Mike Cameron) and the Angels (Todd Greene), as well as a 1998 game between the Rockies (Todd Helton) and the Diamondbacks (Karim Garcia). – Elias
- Ended the year with a season-best 11-game hit streak. Over the current streak, he hit .395 (17x43) with a double, two home runs and eight RBI.
- Threw out 10 runners, leading the Marlins in outfield assists. The 10 assists tied Preston Wilson for third-most by a Marlins' rookie. Mark Kotsay threw out 20 runners in 1998, and Jeff Conine had 11 in 1993.

2010 NOTES

- Went 10-10 with a 5.32 ERA in 31 games (26 starts) with the Yankees in his 17th professional season. He totaled his lowest IP (157.1) and strikeout totals (121) since 1999, when he tossed 154.2 innings and struck out 113. His walks were the most since he issued 68 in his rookie season in 1998.
- Allowed 32 homers, tying for the fourth-most ever allowed by a Yankees pitcher in a single season. He also allowed 33 homers as a Yankee during the 2004 season, which ranks third on the list.
- He surrendered home runs in eight straight starts from July 21 to September 4 to mark the longest such stretch by a Yankees' starter since Andy Pettitte had a nine-game streak over his last eight starts of 1999 and his first start in 2000. It was the longest such streak by a Yankees right-hander since Hideki Irabu had an eight-game streak in 1997.
- Made his first start on April 9 at Tampa Bay, recording the loss in a 9-3 Rays victory (5.2IP, 8H, 8R, 8ER, 3BB, 5K, 2HR). It marked the most runs and earned runs he has allowed since June 25, 2006 vs. Houston (w/ Chicago-AL), when he surrendered a career-high-tying 9R/9ER.
- Also took the loss in his second start on April 14 vs. Los Angeles-AL, (5.1IP, 6H, 4ER, 2BB, 4K), marking the first time in his career he lost the first two starts of a season and the third time he started a season 0-2 (also 1998 and 2005).
- Surpassed 2,500.0 career IP in his start on April 14 vs. Los Angeles (AL), becoming the 189th pitcher all-time to reach the plateau, and one of just five active players to reach the mark.
- Made his third career relief appearance and recorded the win in May 17 victory vs. Boston, striking out his only batter faced (Kevin Youkilis) to end the top of the ninth. It was his first career relief win after making 391 career starts. No Major League pitcher had made as many starts before his first relief win since August 16, 2002, when Kevin Brown earned his first career relief win w/ Los Angeles-NL vs. Montreal after 408 career starts.
- Went undefeated in July, going 3-0 in five starts (3.34 ERA in 32.1IP, 28H, 12ER).
- Made his 400th career start on July 5 at Oakland, becoming the 120th pitcher in Major League history to reach the plateau and sixth active player. He also became the seventh pitcher to reach the plateau as a Yankee, joining Catfish Hunter, Whitey Ford, Mike Mussina, Herb Pennock, Andy Pettitte and Red Ruffing.
- Defeated the Angels on July 21 at Yankee Stadium, completing the feat of winning against all 30 current franchises.
- Earned his 10th win of the season on August 30 vs. Oakland in relief, reaching the total for the 11th consecutive season. Went a career-long 4.2 innings in relief.
- Did not pitch for 10 days before tossing 1.0 inning of scoreless relief in September 21 win vs. Tampa Bay, allowing three hits without striking out a batter. It was the first time he did not strike out a batter in a game since May 10, 2000 w/Montreal vs. Philadelphia, snapping a streak of 349 consecutive appearance with at least 1K.
- Hit three consecutive batters (Jennings, Aybar and Shoppach) in the seventh inning of September 23 relief appearance vs. Tampa Bay (3.0 IP, 1 H, 2 ER, 2 BB, 3 K, 3 HBP), tying a Major League record (eighth time). He became the first Yankee in franchise history to hit three consecutive batters and the first pitcher in the Majors since the Dodgers' Jeff Weaver (8/21/04 vs. Atlanta). He joined Harry Harper (8/25/21 at Cleveland) and Tom Morgan (6/30/54 at Boston) as the only Yankees to hit three batters in a single inning. - Elias
- Has won at least 10 games in 11 consecutive seasons (2000-10), marking the longest such streak among active Major League pitchers. Only Jamie Moyer (15) has more 10-win seasons among active pitchers.
- Has never appeared on the disabled list in his entire career. The only Major League pitchers with longer service time never to have gone on the disabled list are Derek Lowe and Livan Hernandez.
- Is one of three active Major Leaguers to have defeated all 30 teams, joining San Francisco's Barry Zito, free agent Jamie Moyer and the Dodgers' Vincente Padilla (Elias). He has also started in 44 different stadiums, second most among active pitchers (Jamie Moyer-49).
- Owns 10 seasons of at least 200.0IP and has missed 200.0 IP just twice over the last 11 years (2000-10). Both years he did not reach the mark were in each of his two seasons with the Yankees (2010-157.1 IP; 2004- 198.0 IP).
- Struck out at least one batter in 349 consecutive games from May 16, 2000-September 10, 2010, tying Dwight Gooden for the third longest streak since 1900, behind Nolan Ryan (382) and Randy Johnson (351). He also struck out at least one batter in 345 consecutive starts over that same stretch, marking the fifth-longest streak since 1900, trailing only Tom Seaver (411), Nolan Ryan (382), Curt Schilling (378), David Cone (347) and Dwight Gooden (347).
- Has recorded 10-or-more-K in a game 40 times, the third-highest total among pitchers currently on a 40-man roster behind Johan Santana (49) and Kerry Wood (41).
- Has not committed an error over his last 105 G/100 GS since August 16, 2007 and has made just two miscues over the last five seasons (2006-10).

2010 IN REVIEW

FLORIDA'S FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH: According to Stats, Inc., the Marlins had the youngest starting rotation in the National League and fourth-youngest in all of baseball to start the season. On Opening Day, the average age of Florida's starters was 27.14 years. In addition, the Marlins had the youngest 25-man (28.09) and 40-man (27.26) rosters in the NL while again ranking fourth in the Majors in both categories. The Oakland Athletics had the youngest average age on 25-man rosters at 27.71 years, and Oakland and the Cleveland Indians were tied for the youngest 40-man at 26.93 years.

YOUNGEST STARTING ROTATIONS TO START SEASON

TEAM	AVG. AGE
Detroit	25.95
Tampa Bay	26.19
Seattle	26.59
FLORIDA	27.14
Kansas City	27.17

COMEBACK…MARLINS STYLE: On May 31 at Sun Life Stadium, the Marlins trailed the Milwaukee Brewers 4-0 going into the bottom of the sixth inning, before they rallied with 13 runs over the next three innings to win 13-5. The last Major League team to score 13 (or more) runs in a game after being held scoreless through the first five innings was the Marlins themselves, in a 14-7 win against Arizona last July. And it was the most runs the Brewers ever allowed in a game in which they shut out the opponent in the first five innings. –Elias Sports Bureau

TRACK STAR: Cameron Maybin hit his first inside-the-park home run on May 31 against Milwaukee. It was the 15th ITP home run by a Marlin in Franchise history, and 12th at Sun Life Stadium. Emilio Bonifacio was the last Fish to round the bases with an ITP home run, doing so on April 6, 2009 vs. Washington. According to Stats, Inc., Sun Life Stadium has been the site of the second-most ITP home runs since 1993. Only Kauffman Stadium has more with 20.

TEAM CYCLING: The Marlins hit for the cycle in the first inning on June 1 after hitting for the cycle in the sixth inning on May 31, with both games against Milwaukee. Florida was the first National League team to hit for the cycle in one inning in consecutive games since the Expos did it in August 1999. -Elias Sports Bureau

ZERO'S: The Marlins shut out the Washington Nationals in back-to-back games on July 17 and 18, marking the first time since August 17-19, 2005 (three straight) they were able to shut out an opponent in consecutive contests (778 team games). That was the second-longest streak in the Majors between back-to-back shutouts. The Kansas City Royals have gone 2,852 straight, while the Rockies have gone 741 in a row. – Stats, Inc.

RACE TO THE FINISH: Pinch-hitter Donnie Murphy hit a two-run, two-out homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Marlins a 9–8 win over the Rockies on July 19. It was the fifth lead change of the game, tying a Marlins record that was set in 1993, the team's first season of play, and unequaled in the interim. – Elias Sports Bureau

SAVE THE BEST FOR LAST: Wes Helms' bases-loaded single in the 11th inning was a game-winner for the Marlins on July 25 vs. Atlanta, capping a 7-3 homestand that featured four walkoff wins. The Marlins matched the Braves (May 14-20) and Dodgers (May 31-June 13) for the most walkoff wins for any Major League team on one homestand this season and they tied a franchise record for a single homestand (June 8-14, 1998). – Elias Sports Bureau

WINNING LATE: Florida had 10 walkoff wins in 2010, equaling the totals of 2009 and '08. The 10 walkoff wins are tied for the third-most in Club history. Since 1993, Florida has tallied the fifth-most walkoff wins in the National League at 138, while ranking seventh in the Majors in that category.

MOST WALKOFF WINS SINCE 1993

San Diego Padres	146
Los Angeles Dodgers	141
St. Louis Cardinals	140

Cleveland Indians	139

ALL BY HIMSELF: Brad Davis' grand slam off Chris Carpenter accounted for all the scoring in the Marlins' win over St. Louis on September 20. It was the second time this season a player hit a grand slam in a 4-0 win; Mark Teixeira did it against the Mets in June. Before this year that hadn't happened since Edgardo Alfonzo did it for the Giants in 2004. Davis was the fourth player to hit a grand slam off Carpenter, and the first to do so since Hank Blalock in 2004. - Elias Sports Bureau

DOWN WITH O-B-P: Logan Morrison reached base in 42 consecutive games from August 7-September 22, establishing a Marlins rookie record for consecutive games reaching base safely via hit/walk/hit by pitch. The previous mark was 36, done by Hanley Ramirez in 2006. His streak was tied with New York's Mark Teixeira for the longest of the season and was the third-longest ever in Marlins history (Luis Castillo-46 and Kevin Millar-43, both in 2002).

SHOOTING BLANKS: Florida finished the 2010 campaign with 17 shutouts, which established a new Franchise record. The previous high in shutouts in a single season was 15, done by the 2005 Club that went 83-79. The 2004 squad has the third-most at 14, while the 1996 Marlins are fourth with 13. The top five is rounded out by the 2002 team that had 12.

SCORING EARLY AND OFTEN: The Marlins beat the Nationals 16-10 on September 1, breaking the game open early, scoring five runs in both the first and second innings and four runs in the third inning. Florida was the first National League team to score at least four runs in each of the first three innings of a game since Sept. 2, 1922, when the Reds did that in a 17-5 win over the Cubs in Chicago. - Elias Sports Bureau

FISH FARM: The Marlins required the services of 57 players in 2010, which eclipses the club record for most players used in a single season. Thirty-one different pitchers toed the rubber for the Fish, while the field saw 26 different players make an appearance. Prior to this season, the most players to make an appearance in a single-season by Florida was 52 in 2007. That year, 30 pitchers made at least one appearance, while 22 players took the field.

ROOKIE CROP: Florida called on the most rookies in the Majors this season, using 21 first-year players, 16 of which made their Major League debuts. The Cubs used the second-most rookies at 18, and the Mets were third with 17. Toronto and Philadelphia used the fewest, both with seven.

POSTSEASON FIRSTS: The Florida Marlins played their first franchise postseason game on September 30, 1997, a 2-1 win over the San Francisco Giants in Miami. Kevin Brown threw the first playoff pitch in franchise history, to Darryl Hamilton. Brown collected the first Florida postseason strikeout, fanning J.T. Snow to lead off the second inning. Brown retired the first 14 Giants he faced before allowing the first hit to an opponent, a single to Stan Javier with two out in the fifth inning. Florida's first postseason batter was Devon White, who faced Kirk Rueter and popped out to second baseman Jeff Kent. The first Marlin to reach base was Gary Sheffield on a two-out first-inning walk. The first Florida hit came off the bat of Bobby Bonilla, following the Sheffield walk. The first run allowed by Florida came in the top of the seventh, when Bill Mueller hit a leadoff homer. The Marlins scored their first run in the bottom of the inning, on a Charles Johnson leadoff homer.

A FIRST FOR EVERYTHING: The Marlins became the first team to qualify for the postseason and win the World Series as a Wild Card. At the time, Florida was the fastest expansion team to win the World Series, done in their fifth season. The Arizona Diamondbacks surpassed Florida's mark, winning their World Series title in 2001, their fourth season.

RECORD WINNING STREAKS: The Marlins were the third team in postseason history to sweep their first playoff series in team history, joining the 1914 Braves, who swept the Philadelphia A's, and the 1969 New York Mets, who swept Atlanta. Florida began its postseason run with four straight wins, only the second team in baseball history with a franchise-opening playoff win streak of four or more games. The Braves won five straight games to open their postseason history, a four-game sweep in the 1914 World Series and a win over Cleveland in the 1948 playoffs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES NOTES

SWEEPING SUCCESS: With their 3-0 sweep over the Giants, the Marlins became the fastest expansion team to win a postseason series (surpassed by Arizona in 2001). Prior to the Marlins, the fastest NL team to win a playoff series was the New York Mets, in their eighth season. The Marlins won each of the three games over the Giants in comeback fashion, including games one and two in their final at-bats. The 1997 Marlins led the Majors with 24 last at-bat victories in the regular season.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES NOTES

LIVAN MOST VALUABLE, PART 1: Livan Hernandez went 2-0 with a 0.84 ERA in two appearances (one start) in the NLCS vs. Atlanta. He became the first pitcher in LCS history to record a win as both a starter (Game 5) and as a reliever (Game 3) in the same series. In Game 5, Hernandez established an NLCS record and tied an LCS record with 15 strikeouts, the second-highest strikeout game in postseason history. His 2-1, three-hit win in Game 5 was his first Major League complete game.

NUMBERS DON'T ALWAYS MATCH UP: The 1997 Marlins became the second team to advance to the World Series, despite posting a lower batting average and higher ERA than their LCS opponent. The Braves outhit the Marlins .253 to .199 and had a 2.60 ERA, compared to Florida's 3.57. The first time it happened was in 1992, when the Braves topped the Pittsburgh Pirates in a series managed by Bobby Cox and Jim Leyland.

WORLD SERIES NOTES

LIVAN MOST VALUABLE, PART 2: Livan Hernandez (2-0, 5.27 ERA) became the second rookie in MLB history to win the World Series MVP award, joining Larry Sherry of Los Angeles who claimed the honor in 1959. Hernandez also became the first rookie pitcher in 50 years to win two World Series starts. The last rookie to do it was the Yankees' Spec Shea in 1947. Hernandez became the youngest pitcher to win a World Series opener at the age of 22 years, seven months and 28 days. He was the first rookie to win a Series game since Atlanta's Mike Stanton on October 23, 1991 (G4 vs. MIN), and first rookie starter to win since Baltimore's Storm Davis on October 15, 1983 (G4 at PHI). Prior to Hernandez, the last rookie starter to win a Series opener was Philadelphia's Bob Walk (October 14, 1980 vs. KC).

JIM LEYLAND: Marlins manager Jim Leyland became the first World Series manager not to have played in a Major League game since Boston's John McNamara in 1986. The last National League skipper without Major League playing experience was Philadelphia's Paul Owens in 1983. Leyland became the first manager to win his World Series debut since Cincinnati's Lou Piniella on October 16, 1990, vs. Oakland.

BRRR: In Game Three of the World Series, October 21, the Marlins and Indians played in 15-degree wind chill temperatures, the coldest World Series game ever played, according to records kept.

PLAYING EXTRAS: Game seven of the World Series, won by Florida, 3-2, on an Edgar Renteria single off Charles Nagy in the bottom of the 11th inning, was the third seventh game in World Series history to go to extra innings. The others were played in 1924 and 1991.

NOTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Jeff Conine became the first player to go from the expansion draft to the World Series with the same team. Conine was selected from Kansas City with the 22nd pick in the 1992 expansion draft. Conine and Alex Arias are the first players to play for a team in its inaugural season and reach the Fall Classic since the Mets' Ed Kranepool in 1969.

A WINNING DEBUT: The Marlins won their first-ever World Series game on October 18, 7-4, over Cleveland at home. The last two teams playing in their first World Series games won, the last being Toronto in 1992.

ALTERNATING WINS: The Marlins won World Series games one, three, five and seven, while the Indians took games two, four and six. It marked the third time in World Series history that teams alternated victories in all seven games, joining the 1909 Fall Classic between the Pirates and Tigers, and the Yankees and Giants in 1962.

A HEART-STOPPER: Game Seven of the World Series marked the fourth time in World Series history that a winner-take-all game in the Fall Classic went into extra innings, along with the 1991 Series (MIN vs. ATL), the 1924 Series (WAS vs. NYG) and the 1912 Series (BOS vs. NYG). Overall, it marked the seventh time that a deciding World Series game went to extra innings, along with the 1933, 1939 and 1996 games. The 1997 Series was the 10th time a Fall Classic was won by the home team in the bottom of the ninth inning or later (with 1912, 1924, 1927, 1929, 1935, 1953, 1960, 1991 and 1993) and the fifth time in a winner-take-all situation.

WINNING A PAIR

The Marlins are one of three of Major League Baseball's expansion teams to win multiple World Series. Florida accomplished the feat in their first 11 seasons, the fastest among their expansion-mates.

EXPANDING INTO THE POSTSEASON

In only their fifth season, the Marlins became the fourth Expansion team to win the World Series. At the time, the Marlins were the fastest Expansion team to win a World Series title and the second-fastest to reach the playoffs.

The Marlins entered the 2003 postseason as the National League's Wild Card entry, the fourth team in Major League Baseball history to enter the playoffs as the Wild Card multiple times. The Marlins (also Wild Card in 1997), joined the New York Mets (1999 and 2000), the New York Yankees (1995 and 1997) and the Boston Red Sox (1998, 1999 and 2003). Florida is one of three Major League Baseball expansion teams to make the post-season at least twice in their first 11 seasons. Kansas City came into play in 1969 and made the post-season in 1976, 1977 and 1978. Arizona began play in 1998, and saw postseason action in 1999, 2001 and 2002. The Marlins are one of five teams to advance to the World Series as a Wild Card team and one of two (with Anaheim in 2002) to win it.

SIX STRAIGHT: The Marlins concluded the World Series with wins in each of their six playoff series to open the Club's franchise history. The six straight playoff series wins surpasses the mark of consecutive postseason series wins to begin a team's playoff history, done by the Boston Red Sox, 1903-1918. Of the 29 Major League franchises who have participated in postseason play, the Marlins are the only ones never to lose a series.

A WILD POSTSEASON: During the 2003 postseason, the Marlins posted three extra-inning victories, notched three wins when trailing by three or more runs and collected four wins in their final at-bats. According to Jayson Stark on ESPN.com, the Marlins are the fourth team in postseason history with three extra-inning wins and are the fourth team to win three games when trailing by three or more runs. Additionally, no postseason team had ever won more than four games in their last at-bat.

RECORD-SETTING CROWDS: The NLCS Game 4 crowd of 65,829 against the Cubs on October 12 set a new LCS attendance record, surpassing the previous mark of 65,476 (HOU @ PHI on 10/8/80). The Marlins also set a DS attendance record, drawing 65,464 in Game 4 vs. San Francisco (October 4). The October 23 World Series crowd of 65,975 was the largest World Series crowd since Game 7 of the 1997 Series when the Marlins drew 67,204 to see Florida host the Cleveland Indians.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES NOTES

A SERIES FOR THE AGES: The NL Division Series between the Marlins and Giants featured 72 year-old Jack McKeon and 68 year-old Felipe Alou. McKeon was the oldest manager to participate in postseason play in Major League Baseball history, while Felipe Alou was the fourth-oldest. Below is a look at the list:

JACK McKEON	2003 FLORIDA	72 YEARS OLD
Casey Stengel	1960 New York (AL)	70 years old
Connie Mack	1937 Philadelphia (AL)	68 years old
Felipe Alou	2003 San Francisco	68 years old
Tommy Lasorda	1995 Los Angeles	68 years old

The two opposing skippers in this NLDS, Jack McKeon and Felipe Alou, had a combined age of 140 years, the highest combined age of any two managers facing each other in post-season history. Below is a look:

COMB. AGE	YEAR	TEAMS	MAN.
140	2003	FLA-SF (DS)	McKeon / Alou
128	1958	NYY-ATL (WS)	Stengel / Haney
126	1957	ATL-NYY (WS)	Haney / Stengel
123	1949	BRO-NYY (WS)	Shotton / Stengel
118	1953	BRO-NYY (WS)	Dressen / Stengel

WHAT WAYS TO WIN IT: The Marlins closed out their series with the Giants in rather historic ways. On Friday, October 3, the Marlins downed the Giants, 4-3 in 11 innings. The Giants scored an unearned run in the top of the 11th and the Marlins countered with two unearned tallies in the bottom. It marked the first time since Game 8 of the 1912 World Series that a team came from behind to win a postseason game with two unearned runs in the bottom of an extra inning, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The Marlins followed that classic ending with more excitement on Saturday afternoon, October 4, when the Fish ended the NLDS with a 7-6 win over the Giants. The game ended as Jeff Conine threw out J.T. Snow at home plate off a Jeffrey Hammonds single to left. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the event marked the first time in Major League Baseball postseason history that a series ended with the tying run being thrown out at home plate.

CABRERA MATCHES POSTSEASON MARK: Miguel Cabrera went 4x5 in Game 4 of the National League Division Series vs. San Francisco. The four hits tied a Major League postseason record for hits by a rookie, joining NYY's Derek Jeter (1996 ALCS G1), LA's Chad Fonville (1995 NLDS G2), NYG's Freddie Lindstrom (1924 WS G5) and STL Browns' Joe Garagiola (1946 WS G4).

Cabrera had four home runs and 12 RBI in the 2003 postseason, the best single-season rookie home run and RBI marks in MLB playoff history. Entering this postseason, Willie McGee (1982 STL) held the rookie RBI mark at 10. Hideki Matsui had 11 RBI in the 2003 playoffs, one behind Cabrera.

OH THOSE LEFT ON BASE: The Marlins and Giants combined to leave 30 men on base on October 3, setting a new NLDS record. The previous mark was 26, done by the Giants (16) and Mets (10) in a 13-inning contest on October 7, 2000.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

PINCH ME: Mike Lowell became the sixth player in MLB postseason history to hit a pinch-hit home run in extra innings when he homered in the top of the 11th inning on October 7 at Chicago. Below is a look at the all-time postseason extra-inning PH homer list:

MIKE LOWELL (FLA)	G1 2003 NLCS at CHC
Trot Nixon (BOS)	G3 2003 ALDS vs. Oak
Mike Pagliarulo (MIN)	G3 1991 ALCS at TOR
George Vukovich (PHI)	G4 1981 NLDS vs. MON
John Lowenstein (BAL)	G1 1979 ALCS vs. CAL
Dusty Rhodes (SF)	G1 1954 WS vs. CLE

HOMERS SHALL FLY: The Marlins hit a team postseason high four home runs on October 7 at Chicago. Three of the homers (by Rodriguez, Encarnacion and Cabrera) came in the third inning, marking the first time in NLCS history that a team homered three times in an inning. Cabrera's and Encarnacion's homers were back-to-back, the seventh time in NLCS history that a team had players hit back-to-back homers.

A RECORD-SETTING NIGHT: The 17 extra-base hits by the Marlins and Cubs on October 7 set a new LCS record, surpassing the previous mark of 12, done on October 5, 1975 (OAK and BOS) and October 9, 1993 (PHI and ATL). The seven HR by both teams also set a new LCS record.

CABRERA AMONG THE YOUNGEST: On October 7 at Chicago, Miguel Cabrera became the second-youngest player to homer in the postseason, at 20 years, 182 days. The youngest player to go deep in the playoffs was Atlanta's Andruw Jones (19.178) on 10/17/96 vs. STL.

DONTRELLE WITH THE BAT: Dontrelle Willis became the first Marlins pitcher to collect a multi-hit game in postseason play as he went 3x3 on October 4 vs. SF. Willis' three hits set a postseason rookie pitcher record. He was the first pitcher to post a three-hit postseason game since LA's Orel Hershiser did it in game two of the 1988 World Series vs. Oakland.

BECKETT'S BEST: The Marlins forced a Game 6 in the NLCS as RHP Josh Beckett threw the first complete game (CG SHO) of his career (regular and postseason) on October 12. The two-hit shutout by Beckett tied the NLCS record for fewest hits allowed in a complete game, joining CIN's Ross Grimley (10/10/72), NY's Jon Matlack (10/7/73) and SF's Dave Dravecky (10/7/87). Beckett's effort was the 15th complete game shutout in NLCS history. Beckett became the first pitcher to shut out the Cubs in a postseason game since Boston's Babe Ruth, who blanked the Cubs in Game 1 of the 1918 World Series.

IN SELECT COMPANY: According to research by ESPN, Josh Beckett became the third pitcher in postseason history to throw a complete game shutout, allowing two hits or less and fanning 10 or more. Beckett joins Roger Clemens (2000 ALCS vs. SEA, 15 K) and Big Ed Walsh (1906 WS vs. CHC, 12 K) on that list.

IN AN ELIMINATION GAME: According to Jayson Stark of ESPN.com, Beckett became the fourth pitcher in the last 40 years to pitch a CG SHO with his team facing elimination (excluding G7's in LCS or WS or G5's in DS). Beckett joined the list with Curt Schilling (1993 WS), Danny Jackson (1985 ALCS) and Joe Coleman (1972 ALCS).

BIG INNING: The Marlins scored all eight of their runs in the eighth inning on October 14 at Chicago in an 8-3 win. The eight-run inning established a Marlins playoff record, surpassing their previous best of seven, done in the ninth inning of Game 3 of the 1997 World Series (October 21). The eight-run inning also tied an overall Marlins' record for runs scored in an inning, done for the ninth time overall and the first time since July 25, 2003 vs. PHI. The Fish were one run from tying the all-time NLCS record (nine), done by St. Louis in the second inning on October 13, 1985 vs. LA.

According to ESPN, the Marlins became the fifth team in LCS history to come back from a three-run or greater deficit in postseason play to win when facing elimination, and the first since Game 5 of the 1986 ALCS (Game 5 - Boston at California).

BACK FROM 3-1: The Marlins became the fourth team in LCS history (since 1985) to overcome a 3-1 deficit to capture the pennant. Prior to Florida's accomplishment, only one NL team had done it, the 1996 Atlanta Braves, who won three straight over St. Louis to advance to the World Series. Below is a look at the list of 3-1 LCS comebacks:

Year	LCS comebacks	World Series result
1985	KC over Toronto	KC over STL (4-3)
1986	Boston over California	NYM over BOS (4-3)
1996	Atlanta over St. Louis	NYY over ATL (4-2)
2003	Florida over Chicago	FLA over NYY (4-2)
2007	Boston over Cleveland	BOS over COL (4-0)

AN MVP PERFORMANCE: Marlins catcher Pudge Rodriguez was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player, as he hit .321 (9x28) with two home runs and 10 RBI. The 10 RBI set a new NLCS record, surpassing the previous mark of nine, done by San Francisco's Matt Williams in 1989. Rodriguez became the fifth catcher in NLCS history to win MVP honors. Pudge joins STL's Darrell Porter (1982), ATL's Javy Lopez (1996), ATL's Eddie Perez (1999) and SF's Benito Santiago (2002).

A TOUGH TRICK TURNED: The Marlins advanced to the World Series by winning consecutive road games trailing three games to one, a feat done for the fifth time in postseason history: 1958 (NYY over MIL Braves in WS), 1968 (DET over STL in WS), 1979 (PIT over BAL in WS), 1985 (KC over TOR in ALCS) and 2003 (FLA over CHC in NLCS).

WORLD SERIES

The Marlins became the first team in MLB history to reach the World Series as a Wild Card entry twice.

OF HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE: The Marlins became the third expansion team to win multiple World Series, joining the New York Mets and Toronto Blue Jays. The Jays won their two World Championships in their first 17 seasons, while the Mets did it in their first 25 campaigns. The Marlins won two World Championships in their first 11 Major League seasons. The Marlins would become the first team in the post expansion era to accomplish the feat.

JACK McKEON: Marlins manager Jack McKeon became the second manager in Major League Baseball history to lead his team to a World Series championship after taking over his Club during the season. The first manager to accomplish the feat was the Yankees' Bob Lemon in 1978, when he replaced Billy Martin.

EXPANSION NOTABLES: The Marlins were one of five expansion teams to reach the World Series multiple times. The New York Mets lead the list with four Fall Classic entries (win in 1969, loss in 1973, win in 1986 and loss in 2000). The Marlins, San Diego Padres (loss in 1984 and loss in 1998), Toronto Blue Jays (win in 1992, win in 1993) and Kansas City Royals (loss in 1980 and win in 1985) have each made two World Series appearances.

AGE IS A STATE OF MIND: Marlins manager Jack McKeon became the oldest skipper to lead his team to the World Series, as the Series opened with McKeon 72 years and 329 days old. McKeon is ahead of Casey Stengel (70.067 in 1960 with NYY), Connie Mack (68.283 in 1931 with PHA), Stengel (68.063 in 1958 with NYY), Mack (67.283 in 1930 with PHA) and Stengel (67.064 in 1957 with NYY).

McKeon was the first manager since Philadelphia's Paul Owens (in 1983) to lead his team to the World Series after not beginning the season as that Club's skipper.

HOW DO YOU DO, MR. GONZALEZ: Alex Gonzalez hit a walk-off homer off the Yankees' Jeff Weaver in the bottom of the 12th inning on October 22. It marked the first walk-off homer in Marlins postseason history and holds significance in Baseball history. It marked the 13th time that a World Series game ended on a home run and the first time since October 31, 2001 (G4 vs. ARI), when Derek Jeter homered in the bottom of the 10th inning.

According to research done by ESPN, Gonzalez was the third player in Baseball history to have his first career postseason homer come as a World Series walk off, joining Dusty Rhodes (1954 NYG vs. CLE) and Eddie Mathews (1957 MIL Braves vs. NYY). ESPN also noted that Gonzalez was the third player to hit a walk-off homer against the Yankees in World Series play, joining Bill Mazeroski (1960 G7) and Mathews (1957 G4).

A PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS: RHP Brad Penny went 2-0 with a 2.19 ERA in two World Series starts against the Yankees. Penny became the 13th pitcher to beat the Yankees twice in the same Series, joining Sandy Koufax, Bob Gibson and Randy Johnson as the only four to do so in the last 40 years.

BECKETT NAMED WORLD SERIES MVP: Josh Beckett (1-1, 1.10 ERA in WS) became the youngest World Series MVP since 22 year-old Livan Hernandez claimed the honor for the Marlins in 1997. Beckett became the first pitcher since Minnesota's Jack Morris in 1991 to pitch a complete game shutout in a deciding World Series game, the 19th overall in baseball history. It was the first complete game shutout in a World Series game since Arizona's Randy Johnson on October 28, 2001 at New York. Beckett's five hits were the fewest hits in a deciding complete game shutout since Baltimore's Scott McGregor (5) in 1983. He became the youngest pitcher to win a deciding World Series game (23 years, 5 months, 10 days) since Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen (21.6.16) in 1985. Beckett fanned 47 batters in the 2003 post-season, tying Randy Johnson (2001) for second most strikeouts in a single post-season behind Arizona's Curt Schilling in 2001 (56).

MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

WINNING BREEDS SUCCESS: Even with strong young talent being called up to the parent club, the Marlins farm teams showed that there is plenty of talent in their deep farm system. The Jacksonville Suns won their second consecutive Southern League title, while the Gulf Coast Marlins and the Jamestown Jammers both reached the playoffs. The Marlins minor league system recorded their third consecutive winning season, finishing the year with a combined 350-341 (.506) record between the six clubs. The affiliates had an identical 350-341 record last season, while finishing at 365-324 (.530) in 2008. On an individual level, the Marlins had 15 Minor League All-Stars, as well as seven Players of the Week. Additionally, the Marlins named right-handed pitcher Elih Villanueva Minor League Pitcher of the Year and shortstop Osvaldo Martinez Minor League Player of the Year.

Villanueva, 24, went 14-4 with a 2.26 ERA (179.0 IP/45 ER) in 28 starts with the Jacksonville Suns, allowing only 137 hits and a .212 average against. He also tossed four complete games (three shutouts), and posted a winning record in each month of the season. He led the Southern League in ERA, finished second in wins, and first in innings pitched. The Marlins' 27th Round selection of the 2008 First-Year Player Draft from Florida State University, Villanueva was named Marlins Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July and August.

Martinez, 22, finished the year with a batting average of .302, .372 on-base percentage, and .401 slugging percentage in 130 games for the Suns. Martinez scored 90 runs, while collecting 28 doubles, four triples, five home runs and 54 RBI. The Marlins' 11th Round pick of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft had his contract selected from Jacksonville on September 19th and batted .326 in 14 games (10 starts) with Florida to finish the year.

FISH FARM: The Marlins called on the services of the most rookies in the Major Leagues this season, utilizing 21 rookies, 16 of whom made their Major League debut. The next closest team, the Chicago Cubs, used 18 rookies, while the Mets finished third with 17 rookies used during the season. The Fish rookies produced when called upon. The Marlins ranked second in the Majors and first in the National League in base-hits by rookies, with 387. The Detroit Tigers led all of the Major Leagues with 521 rookie hits, while the Pirates' rookies added 366 hits to finish third.

DRAFT RECAP: The Marlins returned to the familiar territory of Southern California to select their top pick, outfielder Christian Yelich from Westlake High School. The Thousand Oaks, CA, native becomes the third product of Southern California to be drafted in the first round of the last four drafts, joining Matt Dominguez (2007) and Kyle Skipworth (2008). In the second round, the Fish tabbed left-handed pitcher Robert Rasmussen of UCLA with the 73rd pick, and chose Jacob Realmuto, a high-school catcher from Oklahoma in the third round. The Marlins chose five pitchers in the first nine rounds, with all but one being college products.

WHAT A YEAR: Mike Stanton and Logan Morrison, who both made their Major League debuts in 2010, made quite an impact with the Big League club. Stanton, called up on June 8th, hit 43 home runs between the two levels and led the Southern League in home runs for the better part of three months after his promotion, only to finish in second with 21 homers. Morrison made his presence felt with his on-base abilities. The rookie reached base safely via hit, walk or hit-by-pitch in 42 consecutive games, tying him with Mark Texeira for the longest such streak in the Majors this season. The streak was the longest ever for a Marlins rookie, and third longest all-time behind Kevin Millar's 43 and Luis Castillo's club-record 46 consecutive games. Morrison ended the season with a .390 OBP.

CHAMPIONSHIP!: The Jacksonville Suns made it back-to-back Southern League Championship titles by defeating the Tennessee Smokies in dramatic fashion on September 18 at the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville. Chris Hatcher hit the first pitch of the bottom of the ninth over the fence, snapping a 0-0 tie and giving the Suns the title in a rematch of the 2009 Championship Series. Jacksonville became only the second Southern League city to claim consecutive titles, joining Montgomery which has accomplished the feat on three different occasions.

ZEPHYR FIELD

Celebrating its 15th year in 2011, Zephyr Field - "the Shrine on Airline" - has become the focal point for family entertainment in the Greater New Orleans area. Over four million fans have attended a variety of events at the stadium since it first opened April 11, 1997. The Zephyrs have drawn more than 320,000 fans in each of their eleven seasons on Airline after drawing fewer than 200,000 in each of their four seasons at Privateer Park.

In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Zephyr Field served as a staging area for rescue operations by FEMA and the National Guard. On April 6, 2006, Zephyr Field opened its gates to an opening day crowd of 11,006 to kick off a season that would see the New Orleans Zephyrs become the first professional sports team to permanently return to New Orleans following Katrina.

Recently, Hollywood has also taken notice of Zephyr Field, as the ballpark is featured in the 2004 film "Mr. 3000" and the 2006 film "Failure To Launch."

The state of Louisiana paid $21 million to build Zephyr Field as part of a capital outlay bill that also included the New Orleans Saints' state-of-the-art practice facility, as well the New Orleans Arena, which is adjacent to the Superdome.

BASEBALL GROUNDS

The Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville, which opened in 2003, is one of the premier minor league ballparks in North America. The ballpark was the first completed project of the Better Jacksonville Plan. Featuring an old-fashioned design, brick facade and a grass seating berm, the Baseball Grounds reminds fans of the days of yesteryear and preserves all of the wonderful tradition baseball has to offer. The vivid sightlines capture the action up-close while providing fans with comfortable seating and easy access to concessions and restrooms. The playing field boasts the longest distance between home plate and center field in the Southern League at 420 feet.

The Baseball Grounds was built for an estimated $34 million, paid for by Jacksonville residents as part of a tax approved in 2000 to fund the "Better Jacksonville Plan," an initiative to improve the city's infrastructure. The adjacent Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena was also funded through the plan and was completed in November 2003.

Including berm and bleacher seating, The Baseball Grounds can accommodate up to 11,000 fans per game, and also featuring 12 luxury boxes, four skydecks, a playground, and the "knuckle," a unique nine-foot high mound for seating at the left field corner.

RUSSELL E. DIETHRICK, JR. PARK

Built in 1941 Russell E. Diethrick, Jr. Park is the second oldest ballpark in the NY-Penn League. The stadium is owned by the City of Jamestown with the Jammers leasing it as the primary tenant. It was originally known as Jamestown Municipal Stadium and hosted the Jamestown Falcons of the "Pennsylvania-Ontario-New York League" (PONY League), which is now known as the NY-Penn League. The park was later unofficially known as College Stadium after Jamestown Community College relocated their campus right behind the park on Falconer Street in 1961.

On August 9, 1997 the park was renamed Russell E. Diethrick, Jr. Park in honor of Jamestown's "Mr. Baseball." It was dedicated to Mr. Diethrick as he has been a player, manager, owner, supporter and friend of professional and youth baseball in Jamestown as a for longer than most can remember. Russ is currently the Community Development Officer for Jamestown Savings Bank. He is an important member of the voluntary Jamestown Jammers Executive Advisory Board, and is the Host President of the Jamestown Babe Ruth World Series Committee and a member of the National Board of Directors for Babe Ruth, Inc.

Diethrick Park has recently seen numerous renovations to modernize the ballpark. By the start of the 2006 Jammers season the park featured a brand new scoreboard and sound system. The Park also hosts all Jamestown Community College and Jamestown High School home baseball games, and the Babe Ruth World Series as well as many other local Babe Ruth games.

INTERLEAGUE FACTS

· The Marlins have the eighth-best winning percentage in Interleague Play in the Majors at .543 (127-107), marking the highest percentage among National League clubs. St. Louis is second (.532), followed by Atlanta (.527), New York (.515) and San Francisco (.504).

· The Fish went 7-8 against American League foes in 2010, as they took on Chicago (1-2), Tampa Bay (4-2), Texas (0-3) and Baltimore (2-1). Gaby Sanchez shined in Interleague Play last season, ranking third in the Majors in average (.429), T4th in hits (27) and T8th in RBI (15).

The Marlins posted a franchise-best 12-3 Interleague record in 1997. GENERAL INFORMATION

MARLINS

CREDENTIAL APPLICATIONS: The Marlins are using Major League Baseball's online credentialing system. Media credential applications are ONLY available online at credentials.mlb.com.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate newsgathering organizations that plan to cover the Marlins on a daily basis. Credentials will be issued only to members of the working press 18 years of age and older. No spouses, guests or children of members of the press will be issued credentials. Press passes are not transferable. Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from obtaining autographs, personal photographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of credential and future access. Only credentials issued by the Florida Marlins, Major League Baseball or the BBWAA will be honored. Credentials must be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those legitimate newsgathering organizations who do not qualify for season credentials. Any organization that anticipates the need for daily credentials must have a letter on file with the Florida Marlins Media Relations Department. If your affiliation has not previously requested credentials from the Marlins, and the Media Relations Department does not have a letter on file, the letter may be sent by FAX (305) 626-7302 or via email to credentials@marlins.com, and it must be received at least one week in advance of the game(s) requested. You will then be informed via e-mail of the status of your credential request. All credential requests must include a valid phone number and e-mail address. Daily credentials are subject to the same restrictions as season credentials and any violation will result in revocation of the credential and any future access.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued to those photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations and those representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Photographers for licensees will only be granted daily passes. Priority in all areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials and all photographs taken are to be used for newsgathering purposes or officially licensed products. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of the conditions under which the credential is issued and result in no further credentials being issued.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Access to the Florida Marlins clubhouse both before and after games will be limited to those organizations who are filing stories on a daily deadline. Clubhouse access will be granted to all media when special situations arise, as determined by the Marlins Media Relations Department. The clubhouse is open to all media with proper credentials 3 1/2 hours before game time and then closes one hour prior to the start of each game. It re-opens no later than 10 minutes after each game. Policies regarding access between games of doubleheaders and during rain delays will be determined by the Marlins Field Manager. Access to the visiting clubhouse is subject to the visiting club's guidelines.

CLUBHOUSE GUIDELINES: While in the Marlins Clubhouse, media are not permitted to use cellular phones, laptops, Web-based portable video cameras, texting devices, PDAs or similar portable devices at any time. Still photography of any type is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times. Broadcast television cameras are allowed only to conduct player interviews in front of a player's locker, with the player's permission. All footage must be shot facing into the player's locker. No B-roll footage is allowed at any time.

FIELD ACCESS: All credentialed members of the media will be given access to the playing field prior to each game. No media will be allowed in fair territory or beyond the first and third base bags. All non-uniformed personnel must clear the field at the conclusion of visitors batting practice unless that individual has credentials expressly for in-game field privileges (photo passes, pregame ceremonies, etc.). Live shots are permitted on the field until 35 minutes prior to the first pitch.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Television and radio stations not holding broadcast rights for Marlins games will be allowed to transmit live reports prior to and after Marlins games. All live television shots will be done on the field. No live shots will be permitted from the clubhouses. No live transmissions inside the stadium by non-rightsholders will be permitted while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. DAVE VAN HORNE

LEAD PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Honored by the Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2011 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award for excellence in broadcasting, Dave Van Horne enters his 43rd season as a Major League broadcaster, his 11th season as the lead radio voice of the Marlins.

When he is honored in Cooperstown in July, Dave will take his place among the greatest voices in the history of the game, legendary broadcasters like Mel Allen, Red Barber, Vin Scully, Jack Buck and Harry Caray. He will become the second Marlins voice to receive baseball broadcasting's highest honor, joining Spanish-language play-by-play broadcaster Felo Ramirez, who was recognized by the Hall of Fame in 2001.

The native of Easton, PA began his baseball broadcasting career with the International League's Richmond Braves in 1966, and was twice named Virginia Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association.

In 1969, he joined the Montreal Expos for their inaugural season and went on to serve as the team's primary English-language voice on radio and television for 32 years.

In 1996, Dave received the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame's Jack Graney Award in recognition of his contributions to the game through broadcasting. In receiving the Ford Frick Award this year, he joins long-time Tigers voice Ernie Harwell as one of only two broadcasters in history to be honored by the Baseball Halls of Fame in both the United States and Canada.

Van Horne, who has stirred Marlins fans with his "Up…Up…and Away!" home run calls since 2001, has been at the microphone for countless historic moments and achievements during his nearly five decades in the broadcast booth. Among the highlights:

The Expos' debut on April 8, 1969; the 3,000th hits of Hall of Famers Willie Mays and Tony Gwynn; both the 3,000th and 4,000th hits of Pete Rose; Nolan Ryan's 3,510th career strikeout, which moved him past Walter Johnson atop the all-time strikeout list; Steve Carlton's 4,000th strikeout; Pedro Martinez's first Cy Young season in 1997; and the Marlins' 2003 World Championship season. Dave has also called 11 no-hitters, including perfect games thrown by Dennis Martinez, David Cone and Roy Halladay.

In addition to his work on the Expos and Marlins Radio Networks, he has also called games on The Baseball Network for NBC and ABC as well as regular season games, an All-Star Game, the NLCS and the World Series nationally in Canada for CBC, CTV and TSN.

His broadcast partners through the years have included Don Drysdale, Duke Snider, Pee Wee Reese, Buck Martinez, Tom Cheek, Ken Singleton and Tommy Hutton.

Dave makes his home in Palm Beach Gardens, FL with his wife Josee and daughter Madison. He also has five sons and 11 grandchildren.

He has lent his voice to more than 32 World Series and All-Star Games, and was recognized by former Commissioner Bowie Kuhn in 1980 for his extensive contribution to promoting baseball in Latin America from the broadcast booth.

Felo Ramírez is also a member of the Puerto Rican National Sports Museum (class of 2004). A life-size statue of Felo was erected during the inaugural event of the National Sports Museum in Guaynabo, PR, commemorating his valuable contributions to the game of baseball. SLUGGING AVERAGE (SLG.): Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each Club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HISTORY OF SUN LIFE STADIUM

Sun Life Stadium is home to the Miami Dolphins, Florida Marlins, University of Miami Football and the Discover Orange Bowl. It also hosts a variety of world-class events and concerts including the U2 360 tour in July 2011.

Solid Sporting Event Record

The Stadium has hosted five Super Bowls, two Major League Baseball World Series, four College Football National Championships, World Cup friendly matches and a variety of other internationally acclaimed sporting events.

World-class Entertainment Venue

The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Billy Joel, Paul McCartney, The Three Tenors, the Police, Madonna and U2 (returning to Sun Life Stadium in July 2011 with its 360 World Tour) are just some of the top performers who have appeared at the Stadium in recent years.

Luxury and Technology Set the Standard

A $250 million capital improvement project in 2007 resulted in a brand new Club Level, a 360,000 square foot facility expansion, refurbished luxury suites, the installation of two of the largest high-definition video boards in the world and 2,100 feet of LED ribbon board spanning 360 degrees plus a new team store.

Historic Highlights:

• 1987 – Joe Robbie Stadium (JRS) stadium opens with 1.2 million square feet, 24,000 plus parking spaces, 75,000 seats and a playing field that meets standards for the National Football League, Major League Baseball and World Cup Soccer. Financing is offset by exclusive patron Club Level and Executive Suite membership – a model for other facilities across the country.

• 1990 – H.Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and CEO of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., purchases fifty percent of the stadium.

• 1991 – South Florida is awarded a national league expansion franchise.

• 1994 – Wayne Huizenga acquires remaining fifty percent of the facility.

• 2005 – Wayne Huizenga starts a major renovation initiative for the Stadium.

• 2007 – The Stadium completes its $250 million capital improvement project including an additional 360,000 square feet.

• 2008 – Wayne Huizenga sells fifty percent of the Miami Dolphins, the Stadium and surrounding undeveloped land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company.

• 2009 – Stephen Ross purchases another 45 percent of the team and the Stadium; he becomes a 95 percent owner. Wayne Huizenga retains a five percent share and a 50 percent land partnership.

• 2010 – The Stadium becomes Sun Life Stadium on January 20, just four days before the Pro Bowl and 11 days before Super Bowl XLIV. The long-term partnership for stadium naming rights and sponsorship continues Sun Life Financial's commitment to build brand awareness on a national and international scale. The partnership between the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life includes a commitment to the community by bringing the Sun Life Rising Star Awards program – recognizing and rewarding exceptional at-risk youth and the non-profit organizations which support them – to the South Florida area.

MARLINS MULTICULTURAL MARKETING

SPANISH-LANGUAGE AND MULTICULTURAL CULTURAL EVENTS

Béisbol is a passion played out on grassy fields and dirt plains throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. The Marlins aim to bring this same passion to the diverse community of South Florida. It is the goal of our Multicultural Marketing efforts to take a proactive approach in bringing Los Marlins to our fans in their communities.

Marlins en Miami Store

Marlins en Miami is a full service ticket office and team merchandise store. It is located in the heart of the Hispanic community at 3701 SW 8th Street. The main focus of the store is to serve as a lasting presence for the Marlins in Miami's passionate baseball community. With a staff that is fluent in both English and Spanish, the Marlins serve the Hispanic community by offering general information, individual, group, and season ticket sales, as well as hosting events throughout the season.

Hablando con los Marlins

"Hablando con los Marlins" is a weekly radio show hosted by Jerry Del Castillo on Spanish flagship station WAQI 710AM. The show is broadcast live at Sun Life Stadium two hours prior to each Saturday home game during the season and from different locations in the community when the team is on the road. The show consists of a recap of the week's games, player interviews, trivia, and live calls from our fans.

Fiesta Fridays

Friday nights at the ballpark will take on a distinct Latin flavor with the launch of Fiesta Fridays. It all starts at the Gate H Strike Zone once the gates open with live salsa and merengue music on the main stage. Fans can take part in our weekly Dominos tournament "Dominando con los Marlins" to win Marlins memorabilia. Each Fiesta Friday will also feature a "Latino Legends" autograph session for the first 100 fans. Once the game starts, the home team will take the field wearing their "Los Marlins" jerseys and there will be bilingual PA announcements throughout the game. Latin music will be played throughout the inning breaks along with performances by the Mermaids and Manatees.

2011 SPRING TRAINING

The Florida Marlins enter their ninth Spring Training at Jupiter's Roger Dean Stadium, approximately one hour north of the Club's regular season home of Sun Life Stadium. The complex is located on approximately 110 acres within the Abacoa Community. Abacoa is located on Donald Ross Road, approximately ¼ mile east of Interstate 95. The Marlins share the Palm Beach County facility with the St. Louis Cardinals, the only multiple-team Spring Training site in the Grapefruit League.

Roger Dean Stadium was named the Professional Baseball Field of the Year by the Sports Turf Managers Association.

In 2003 Baseball America recognized Roger Dean Stadium as baseball's fifth-best spring training facility,

The Marlins begin their 19th spring training on Sunday, February 27, when they take on the University of Miami in an exhibition contest. The club will start their Grapefruit League schedule on February 28, playing as the visiting team against the St. Louis Cardinals. The Marlins spent their inaugural Spring Training at the Cocoa Expo Center in Cocoa Beach and played nine years (1994-2002) at Space Coast Stadium in Viera (Melbourne).

The $28 million state-of-the-art complex opened on February 28, 1998 and accommodates 7,000 fans with luxury sky box seats, field and loge box seats, bleachers and berm seating. The ballpark seats approximately 6,700 and another 300 fans can spread out on a blanket and catch a closer glimpse of the game from the berm seating, located just in front of the Party Deck in right field. The six air-conditioned luxury suites provide 320 square feet of interior entertainment including a wet bar, refrigerator, sink, ice maker, color television with VCR, sofa, bar stools and additional seats. Each suite has seating for 12 (outdoors) and is available with a private entrance and elevator access.

Following spring training, the complex is the home of the Class A Jupiter Hammerheads (Florida affiliate) and the Palm Beach Cardinals (St. Louis affiliate) of the Florida State League.

Offices for the Marlins Media Relations Department and the media workroom are located in the Marlins executive offices, beyond the left field wall at Roger Dean Stadium. The Press Dining area is located in the main press box area. Admission to all Marlins spring training games requires either a spring training credential, a BBWAA card, or a Marlins daily spring training credential.

EVENTOS MULTICULTURALES Y EN ESPAÑOL

El béisbol es una pasión que se juega en los campos verdes y la tierra polvorosa de Latinoamérica y el Caribe. Los Marlins tienen como propósito llevar esa misma pasión a la diversa comunidad hispana del sur de la Florida. El objetivo de nuestra iniciativa de Mercadeo Multicultural es llevar a Los Marlins a nuestros admiradores en sus respectivas comunidades.

Tienda "Marlins en Miami"

"Marlins en Miami" es una tienda de servicios completos para la venta de boletos y mercancía del equipo. Está ubicada en pleno corazón de la comunidad hispana, en el 3701 SW 8 Calle. El objetivo primordial del establecimiento es ser una presencia permanente de Los Marlins en la zona de La Pequeña Habana/Coral Gables. "Marlins en Miami" cuyo personal es bilingue, presta servicios a la comunidad hispana ofreciendo información general, venta de boletos individuales, grupales y de temporada, así como llevando a cabo eventos durante toda la temporada.

Hablando con los Marlins

"Hablando con los Marlins" es un programa radial semanal a cargo del presentador Jerry Del Castillo y Juan Martínez, que se transmite por la emisora oficial de habla hispana, Radio Mambi WAQI 710 AM. El programa se transmite en vivo durante toda la temporada desde el Sun Life Stadium, dos horas antes de cada juego sabatino de los Marlins en casa, y desde diferentes sitios de la comunidad cuando el equipo esta fuera de Miami. El programa consiste de un recuento de los juegos de esa semana, entrevistas a los jugadores, preguntas y respuestas del deporte, y llamadas en vivo de los fanáticos de los Marlins.

Los viernes en el estadio tendran un sabor mas latino con nuestros Viernes de Fiesta. La diversion comienza desde que abren las puertas en la Zona Strike de la entrada H con musica en vivo de diferente grupos locales. Los fanaticos pueden hechar un partido de domino y particpar de nuestro torneo "Dominando con los Marlins" y ganar premios de memorabilia. Como parte de cada Viernes de Fiesta tendremos una sesion de autografos con diferentes "Leyendas del Beisbol Latino" para los primeros 100 fanaticos.
